FINANCIAL NEWS

NEW YORK MARKET SHOWS EVEN TENOR

Stocks Strong Throughout Day, Indicating Confidence International Situation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28. - Strong throughout the day, the stock market manifested a more even tenor than at any time since the recent period of fluctuations set in with the sinking of the Arabic, thus indicating that traders are fully convinced from the news dispatches from Washington that all probability of complications with Germany has passed.

Having opened fractionally higher than yesterday's close, price levels settled back to the last figures of the previous day. There was no evidence, however, of a disposition to reduce long lines, as has been the case prior to recent week-ends.

There were a few instances in which stocks moved rapidly, but these cases were found among the specialties. American Coal Products advanced 61/2 points to 157; Texas Oil sold up 5 points to 153, but later eased off, and Pittsburgh Coal, after opening up 1/2 a point at 351/4. rose to 38%, only to drop back just before the close on realizing sales to 36. Tennessee Copper, which on Thursday made a sensational rise of 114 points to 65, was exceptionally weak, declining in the first hour 4 full points to 54%. It closed with a net loss of 21/2 points at 56. United States Rubber sold off 11/2 points

The railroad securities appeared to be practically neglected. Rock Island, un-der liquidation resulting from reports to the effect that August earnings will show a sharp decrease, lost 1½ points. Western Maryland, on the other hand, the revenues of which have been showthe revenues of which have been showing recent marked improvement, rose 3½ points to 29, and closed at 28½.

While the large market was maintaining this even trend, the curb market was witnessing a sharp rally in Electric Boat stock, sales in which were recorded at 555 as a result of reports that a delegation of Chinese naval men inspecting plants in this country have recommended to their government the purchase of 100 submarines to cost $75,000,000.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington remarked the other afternoon that some people mean well, but execute badly, and told a little anecdote about Smith as an illustration.

Smith attended a private theatrical performance one evening, and at the conclusion of the entertainment he essayed to throw a bouquet at one of the women who took part.

"I want to congratulate you, madam," he effusively said. "You played splendidly. The part fits you to perfection." I am afraid not," was the blushful rejoinder of the other. "A young and pretty woman is needed for that part." You may think so, madam," beautifully blundered Smith, "but you have positively proved the contrary,"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Going to Headquarters. The railroad official answered the telephone. An excited woman on the line.

"Is this the New York Railways?"

"Is the general manager there?"
"This is his office, madam."
"Well, you know how warm it was this morning and then how terribly cold it turned shortly afterward?"
"Yes, madam."
"Well, my daughter Nora went down."

"Yes, madam."
"Well, my daughter Nora went downtown early this morning and she wore only a light waist and skirt. You know how the people keep the car windows open in the summertime, and I'm afraid she'll catch her death of cold coming home. Can't you issue an order to have all the car windows closed toto have all the car windows closed day?"-Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Cure Seemed Efficacious. In a city boarding-house some time use the guests were working away at the evening meal when Mr. Jones broke through the din of clattering knives and forks.

"I was reading of a new cure this morning," he remarked, glancing around the table. "It seems that you take off your shoes and stockings and walk "What do you think of that cure, Mr

Jones?" eagerly interrupted the land-lady, who had also read the story. "Do you really think that walking barefoot-ed through grass will make one strong and healthy?" smiled Mr. Jones, strenuously trying to cut a piece of meat, "it seems to have made this beef pretty tough."—
